GIFT ACCEPTANCE POLICY

The Bretton Woods Committee is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation (tax number 52-1372430) organized under the laws of the District of Columbia within the United States of America. The Bretton Woods Committee encourages the solicitation and acceptance of gifts to the organization for purposes that will help the Bretton Woods Committee to fulfill its mission. The following policies and guidelines govern the acceptance of gifts made to the Bretton Woods Committee or for the benefit of any of its operations, programs or services.

Use of Legal Counsel—Bretton Woods Committee will seek the advice of legal counsel in matters relating to acceptance of gifts when appropriate. Review by counsel is recommended for:

- A. Gifts of securities that are subject to restrictions or buy-sell agreements.
- B. Documents naming Bretton Woods Committee as trustee or requiring Bretton Woods Committee to act in any fiduciary capacity.
- C. Gifts requiring Bretton Woods Committee to assume financial or other obligations.
- D. Transactions with potential conflicts of interest.
- E. Gifts of property which may be subject to environmental or other regulatory restrictions.

Restrictions on Gifts—Bretton Woods Committee will not accept gifts that (a) would result in Bretton Woods Committee violating its bylaws or charter, (b) would result in Bretton Woods Committee losing its status as an IRS 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, (c) are too difficult or too expensive to administer in relation to their value, (d) would result in any unacceptable consequences for Bretton Woods Committee, or (e) are for purposes outside Bretton Woods Committee's mission. Decisions on the restrictive nature of a gift, and its acceptance or refusal, shall be made by the Executive Committee, in consultation with the Executive Director.

Gifts Generally Accepted Without Review—

- Cash. Cash gifts are acceptable in any form, including by check, money order, credit card, wire transfer or on-line. Donors wishing to make a gift by credit card must provide the card type (e.g., Visa, MasterCard, American Express), card number, expiration date, and name of the card holder as it appears on the credit card.
- Marketable Securities. Marketable securities may be transferred electronically to an account maintained at one or more brokerage firms or delivered physically with the transferor's endorsement or signed stock power (with appropriate signature guarantees) attached. All marketable securities will be sold promptly upon receipt unless otherwise directed by the Executive Committee. In some cases marketable securities may be restricted, for example, by applicable securities laws or the terms of the proposed gift; in such instances the decision whether to accept the restricted securities shall be made by the Executive Committee.

- Bequests and Beneficiary Designations under Revocable Trusts, Life Insurance Policies, Commercial Annuities and Retirement Plans. Donors are encouraged to make bequests to Bretton Woods Committee under their wills, and to name Bretton Woods Committee as the beneficiary under trusts, life insurance policies, commercial annuities and retirement plans.
- Charitable Remainder Trusts. Bretton Woods Committee will accept designation as a remainder beneficiary of charitable remainder trusts.
- Charitable Lead Trusts. Bretton Woods Committee will accept designation as an income beneficiary of charitable lead trusts.

Gifts Accepted Subject to Prior Review—Certain forms of gifts or donated properties may be subject to review prior to acceptance. Examples of gifts subject to prior review include, but are not limited to:

- Tangible Personal Property. The Executive Committee shall review and determine whether to accept any gifts of tangible personal property in light of the following considerations: does the property further the organization's mission? Is the property marketable? Are there any unacceptable restrictions imposed on the property? Are there any carrying costs for the property for which the organization may be responsible? Is the title/provenance of the property clear?
- Life Insurance. Bretton Woods Committee will accept gifts of life insurance where Bretton Woods Committee is named as both beneficiary and irrevocable owner of the insurance policy. The donor must agree to pay, before due, any future premium payments owing on the policy.
- Real Estate. All gifts of real estate are subject to review by the Executive Committee. Prior to acceptance of any gift of real estate other than a personal residence, Bretton Woods Committee shall require an initial environmental review by a qualified environmental firm. In the event that the initial review reveals a potential problem, the organization may retain a qualified environmental firm to conduct an environmental audit. Criteria for acceptance of gifts of real estate include: Is the property useful for the organization's purposes? Is the property readily marketable? Are there covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, easements, encumbrances or other limitations associated with the property? Are there carrying costs (including insurance, property taxes, mortgages, notes, or the like) or maintenance expenses associated with the property? Does the environmental review or audit reflect that the property is damaged or otherwise requires remediation?
